

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP: TEACHER LEADERSHIP SPECIALIZATION

EDL 605	Foundations of Catholic Education
Required Courses for Public School Educators
EDL 612	Special Education Leadership
Total Credits	36

The master's degree in educational leadership prepares individuals to play a leadership role in schools. Students may choose either the school administration program or the teacher leadership program in pursuit of the educational leadership degree.

Graduates will become educational leaders who:

1. Promote the success of all students by enabling a collaborative vision of student success, by sustaining a positive school culture, and by effectively managing the school.
2. Lead processes that collect and analyze information and that lead to decisions which effect change and improve the school.
3. Embody educational values that are based on the Ignatian and Education Department charisms of cura personalis, magis, men and women for and with others, and contemplation in action.
4. Communicate knowledge skillfully to specialized and non-specialized persons alike orally and in writing.
5. Incorporate reflective practice and apply ethical principles such as integrity and fairness when making personal and professional decisions.
6. Value diversity and respond to the interests and needs of a diverse community.
