STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

Creighton University offers a variety of study abroad opportunities all over the world. The Global Programs Coordinators work closely with each student to select a program that meets his or her educational, professional, and personal needs. All students planning to study abroad must obtain approval from the Global Engagement Office (GEO) by applying through the Jays Abroad portal on the study abroad website. To allow as much time for research and exploration as possible, it is recommended that students begin planning their study abroad experience one year in advance of their term abroad. Visit www.creighton.edu/studyabroad or contact studyabroadadvisor@creighton.edu for more information. Programs

Creighton’s Service-Learning Program Abroad: Encuentro Dominicano

The Encuentro Dominicano is an academic, living-learning program integrating community based learning in a cross-cultural context. Visit the Encuentro Dominicano website www.creighton.edu/encuentro to learn more.

Faculty-Led Programs Abroad

Faculty-led programs are short-term courses led by Creighton faculty and taught in locations around the globe. Programs range in length from 2-6 weeks. Students may earn 3-9 credits during their faculty-led program.

Creighton in Programs

Creighton partners directly with institutions around the world to host students for a semester or full academic year. Students are integrated into the host culture and usually take courses alongside local students. Most programs offer English-instructed coursework, with additional course options available in the local language. Classes taken abroad are pre-approved, factor directly into a student’s GPA, and worked into a student’s unique educational plan.

Non-Creighton Programs

Creighton University students may elect to participate in study abroad programs administered by other institutions or organizations, with approval and guidance from GEO. Students will pay the cost and fees of the program directly to the third-party organization, and will not pay Creighton tuition, fees, room, and board for the term abroad. Classes taken abroad are pre-approved, factor directly into a student’s GPA, and worked into a student’s unique educational plan.

Co-curricular Travel Programs

Students regularly participate in non-credit-bearing programs with the approval of the Student Leadership and Involvement Center (SLIC). GEO staff regularly assists in the processing and pre-departure orientation of these groups. Examples of co-curricular travel at Creighton include:

- Project CURA Orientation (Medical School)
- MEDLIFE (undergraduate pre-health students)
- Model UN

The Global Engagement Office is located on the third floor of Creighton Hall. For information, call 402.280.2221 or visit creighton.edu/geo.
