

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY TO HOLD OFFICE

Student organizational officers and individual class officers shall maintain good academic standing at the time of their election and throughout their term in office. Additionally, they must be compliant with University policy as stated in the Student Handbook with respect to disciplinary probation. Failure to meet these standards will necessitate removal from the affected office. (2025)