STUDENT HEALTH SERVICES

Student Health Services include:

1. The CHI Health Clinic-Student Care Clinic and Priority Clinic
2. Student Health Education and Compliance Team

CHI Health Student Care Clinic

Services are available to Creighton University students at the clinic, located at 24th and Cuming Streets, for their medical needs.

Board-certified physicians, nurse practitioners and physician assistants will provide the following services from the CHI Health Clinic-Student Care Clinic: This full-service clinic provides primary and specialty care, including women's health, endocrinology, cardiology and neurology. Walk-in, same-day and by-appointment visits are available, and a 24/7 emergency department is ready if you need it.

Students must bring a current health insurance card.

CHI Health sets its fee schedule for services. Your health insurance plan will determine whether payment is to be collected at the time of visit. If a health insurance plan requires a co-pay, payment must be made before checking in for an appointment.

How to Obtain Student Health Services

Students can schedule an appointment by calling 402.280.2735 and select option 2.

Student Health Education and Compliance

The Student Health Education and Compliance Office (https://www.creighton.edu/student-experience/wellness/health-and-counseling/student-health-education-and-compliance) provides health education and wellness resources to students, with the mission of enhancing well-being and academic success. You may contact the office at 402.280.2735, located in the Kiewit Fitness Center Office #225.

Services include:

- Administration of University-sponsored student health insurance plans and monitoring of insurance requirements
- On-campus health education and programming, Shoo the Flu vaccinations, WellFest, and more. Free flu shots are administered throughout the campus in September-November.
- Care coordination with CHI Health, other healthcare resources, and on campus resources. If you need help getting connected to primary care providers, specialty providers, physical therapy services, home health care providers, pharmacy providers and other healthcare needs, Creighton can help. Our care coordination and healthcare navigation services are available to assist all students, including those who are acutely ill or those living with chronic illness. This free, confidential resource can be accessed in person at the Kiewit Fitness Center #225 or by calling 402.280.2735 (select option 3). You may also email studenthealth@creighton.edu. Inquiries received after hours or on the weekend will be responded to on the next business day.
- Campus Health Aide Program.
  Campus Health Aides (CHAs) are available to help with non-emergency health needs after-hours. They can provide first aid and temporary after-hours medical relief for the acute health needs of students at their locations on campus. CHAs are available on Monday through Thursday from 4:30 p.m. to 8 a.m. and continuously on the weekends, from Friday at 4:30 p.m. until Monday at 8 a.m. All care provided and medication dispensed is under the directions of the on-call CHI Health Student Care Clinic medical provider.

  CHA support is provided with no charge to students. To request a CHA, call Public Safety at 402.280.2104 or notify your RA. In the event of an emergency, call Public Safety at 402.280.2911.
