

MARKETING: STRATEGIC COMMUNICATIONS TRACK

The Strategic Communications Track within the Marketing Major focuses on the pivotal role that marketing communications play in carrying out strategic promotional objectives and activities. The track is designed for students interested in the development, implementation, and/or management of marketing strategies and activities related to promotion, advertising, branding, public relations, media design, content creation, sales, social media, sponsorship, influencer marketing, media planning, and other emerging forms of marketing communications.

Strategic Communications Track Requests: 18 Credits

Code	Title	Credits
Marketing core required courses:
MKT 333	Consumer and Market Behavior	3
MKT 343	Marketing Research	3
MKT 473	Marketing Management: Policy and Strategy	3
Strategic Communications required courses:
MKT 353	Advertising and Promotion	3
MKT 377	Public Relations	3
Strategic Communications elective course (select one from the list below):
MKT 335	Sales Management
MKT 433	Digital Marketing
MKT 436	Agency Practicum II
GDE 324	Digital Foundations
GDE 380	Graphic Design
JRM 327	Social Media
JRM 341	Public Relations Writing
JRM 347	Media Strategy
JRM 433	Advertising Copywriting and Design
Total Credits		18

Note MKT 363 Global Marketing and MKT 366 Marketing Internship may not serve as a major elective for the Strategic Communications Track.

Note: Students performing a Strategic Communications-specific role in BUS 436 iJay Practicum II may seek Department Chair approval to count BUS 436 iJay Practicum II as an elective for the Strategic Communications Track. BUS 435 iJay Practicum I and MKT 435 Agency Practicum I cannot be used to fulfill a major elective for the Strategic Communications Tracks.