

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

---

Creighton University seeks to provide its students an integrating vision of the world. Through the curriculum, engagements with international communities in Omaha and Phoenix as well as abroad, and on-campus interactions with students, scholars, and staff from around the world, Creighton students have the opportunity to gain a global perspective and intercultural communication skills necessary for leadership and service in local and global communities.