

STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Office of Student Accessibility Services

Creighton University is committed to providing services and resources to meet the needs of qualified students with disabilities, ensuring equal access to academic programs and University facilities. Guided by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADA Amendment Act of 2008, Student Accessibility Services coordinates the process through which all students request and receive reasonable accommodations, working closely with faculty and staff to meet individual needs. The Office of Student Accessibility Services is located in the Old Gym, Room 223 and can be contacted via email at SAS@creighton.edu (sas@creighton.edu) or online at www.creighton.edu/student-success/student-accessibility-services (<https://www.creighton.edu/student-success/student-accessibility-services/>).

About Us

The Office of Student Accessibility Services (SAS) ensures equitable access and support for students with disabilities. As a part of Student Success, SAS provides reasonable accommodations, empowers student self-advocacy, and collaborates with campus partners to create a more inclusive community.
